A STRONG SENSE OF SWELL

With a last name that means "aromatic or fragrant" in Farsi, it is no surprise that sophisticated siblings Andrea and Jason Moattar have developed their own candle. The glamorous pair, who made their mark in the Atlanta market with an empire of fashionable floor coverings, created a spicy, yet subtle, aroma—think ebony wood, patchouli and bergamot notes—and packaged it in their trademark tastemaking style. This year, iconic designer Jan Showers will join their team to create an exclusive line of rugs. With the Dallas-based designer's penchant for chic and the Moattars' cutting-edge tradition, we can only imagine what this irresistible trio will produce when the collection debuts this fall. Moattar at ADAC, 351 Peachtree Hills Ave. NE, Ste. 314, moattar.com
